

GOLDMINE PICKERS

Midwestern original folk band from Indiana, Michigan & Missouri

Goldmine Pickers celebrate their ten year anniversary this year! In the past decade they have traveled and played across the US and Ireland, sold a song to Nissan which was aired on television, radio and internet commercials in 35 countries around the world and have recorded four critically acclaimed albums. And they're just getting started!

... a core of old-time music with a healthy overlay of Celtic overtones and plenty of room for unexpected twists and turns along the way.

-JL (Sing Out! Magazine)

Pure and unpretentious, anything but over-produced, and technically brilliant.

-Cary Allen Fields (The Fields Of Bluegrass Radio Hour on WICR 88.7FM)

MEMBERS:

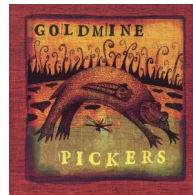

Lukas Simpson - mandolin, guitar, bouzouki, banjo, harmonica, vocals

Sean Ellsworth-Hoffman - fiddle, guitar, ukelele, vocals

Adam Carter - banjo, guitar, ukelele, fiddle, vocals

Seth Sutton - upright bass, guitar, vocals

DISCOGRAPHY

Goldmine Pickers

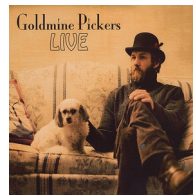

The Goldmine Pickers (2004) self-titled debut album. In 2006, "Conversation's Free," written by Lukas Simpson was heard by television and radio audiences in 40 countries around the world as the soundtrack for a Nissan_SHIFT commercial to advertise the Note.

Lonesome Gone

There's a wealth of music styles on Lonesome Gone (2007), which makes for an album loaded with interest. ...This is a band for today's bluegrass fan who doesn't mind poking around in fresh, new territory.

-JK from Bluegrass Unlimited (Album Review May 2008)

Live

Goldmine Pickers Live (2009) is full of heartfelt ballads and technically brilliant instrumentals that are raw, energetic, and unforgettable!

Live Autumn 2013

Five songs recorded live in Northern Indiana with two microphones August 30th, 31st and September 1st at the North Webster Park Pavilion and the Kendallville Bluegrass Festival.

CONTACT INFO:

www.goldminepickers.com

goldminepickers@gmail.com

Booking Contact: Angela Simpson 206.355.7557

Now available for booking and recording!